9 v.
10 KRISTI NOEM, et al.,
11 Defendants.

Case No. 25-cv-05687-TLT (SK)

ORDER REGARDING CLARIFICATION

Regarding Docket No. 157

12
13 Plaintiffs requested that the Court clarify the scope of its Order regarding documents
14 Defendants have withheld on the basis of privilege. Defendants have repeatedly broadly claimed
15 the deliberative process privilege applied, both in this case and in National TPS Alliance v. Noem,
16 No. 25-cv-01766-EMC. The Court reviewed a sample of the most recent batch of documents
17 Defendants withheld based on the deliberative process privilege and again found that no
18 documents should be withheld on that basis. (Dkt. No. 155.) That Order should not have been 19 surprising to any party because it was in line with what the Court has previously ordered. At no
20 point has the Court determined that any document may actually be withheld based on the 21 deliberative process privilege. The Court notes that the parties' oppositions to the motions for 22 summary judgment are due by October 28, 2025 and, thus, Plaintiffs need for the remaining
23 documents Defendants have withheld is time sensitive. Accordingly, the Court GRANTS
24 Plaintiffs' request for the Court to clarify the scope of its Order. The Court HEREBY clarifies
25 that by no later than October 22, 2025, Defendants shall produce the remaining documents they

2 portions of documents that were provided in camera and the Court ordered may not be withheld.

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.
